In 1995, "A Time for US" was formed through the REACH family support services as the first Autism support group in southern Ohio. Between 1998-2001 the group evolved into the REACH-Autism Project, growing into a parent and professional based resource group and in April of 2001, the organization sponsored the first annual "walk for Autism" in Portsmouth, Ohio. In 2003, the project was re-established as the Autism Project of Southern Ohio, becoming a non-profit organization.
